

LIBRARY ORDER FORM

Libraries may order All the Light Here Comes from Above: The Life and Legacy of Edward Hitchcock through most major book distributors or directly from Unquomok Press using the form below. Complete the form and email it to UnquomokPress@gmail.com, or mail it to the address below. An invoice will be included with your order, payable within 30 days.

Name of Library: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City/Town: _____ State: _____

Zip Code: _____

To attention of (name): _____

Contact name, phone or email: _____

Library Tax Exempt Number: _____

	Number of Copies	Unit Price	Total
All the Light Here Comes from Above: The Life and Legacy of Edward Hitchcock _____		x $17.50	_____
<small>ISBN 978-0-9856944-9-4 416 pages, over 100 illustrations, notes, references, index</small>
*Please provide your Tax Exempt Number above, or add 6.25% ($1.09 per book) to the total _____		➔ MA SALES TAX	_____
Free shipping via USPS Media Mail within Massachusetts; add $5.00 per book for shipping outside of Mass. _____		➔ SHIPPING	_____
		TOTAL DUE	_____

Send the completed form to UnquomokPress@gmail.com or to Unquomok Press, 50 Briar Hill Road, Williamsburg, MA 01096. An invoice will be included with the book, payable in 30 days. Books are returnable within 30 days for full refund (you pay return shipping).

For more information on the book, the author, and Edward Hitchcock, please visit www.EdwardHitchcock.com.

Also by Robert T. McMaster

The Trolley Days Book Series

Historical novels set in western Massachusetts in the World War I era.

www.TrolleyDays.net

